Supervisor meetings:

Dotts did not have any meetings to report on.

Swearingin attended the Conservation Board meeting by phone. Kenny & his staff are doing well, and everything is ready for winter, and everything is under roof. 1015 Transit is doing well. Ridership is up. No word on the lawsuit with the City of Ottumwa regarding the funding that is owed to 1015.

Seams attended the Wayne County Homemakers Board meeting. New officers were elected. And Homemakers will be hiring an additional part time employee. Seams attended the Wayne County Safety Committee meeting, and the safety manual has been submitted to Jack Reed for his review. Seams also attended the Southern Iowa Crime Commission meeting and the Executive Board meeting for the South-Central Workforce Development. The Executive Board is reviewing the contract with Indian Hills and the LWDB may request Indian Hills to provide better service to outlying counties in the future through a mobile unit. Seams also met with the board for New Venture Group Home, and they performed their annual review with Halie Spidle. Halie is doing an excellent job.

Mendy Middlebrook, Director of Wayne County Mental Health and General Relief requested a closed session per code section 21.5(1)(a) at 9:32AM for her annual review. Swearingin made the motion to go into a closed session, seconded by Seams.

At 9:37AM Swearingin made motion to come out of closed session, seconded by Seams.

Seams stated that they are very pleased with Mendy's performance.

Aaron Hoelting, Building and Grounds Keeper requested a closed session per code section 21.5(1)(a) at 9:40AM for his annual review. Seams made motion to go into closed session, seconded by Swearingin.

At 9:42AM Seams made motion to come out of closed session, seconded by Swearingin.

Seams stated that they are very pleased with Aaron's performance.
